Finders Not Keepers

Workers Play 'Grab Bag' With Stolen Gems

NEW YORK (AP) — The bandits who pulled off Manhattan's $3-million jewel robbery apparently netted not one carat. A group of construction workers found the stolen gems in a hijacked car and, police said, it was like playing "grab bag" in King Solomon's Mines.

No one may profit from the biggest jewel theft in the nation's history. Chalk that up to an incompetent getaway driver and a big mouth.

Five construction men were arrested Tuesday night. Police said they recovered about a quarter-million dollars worth of the loot from the five. Some of it was buried on a Gettysburg, Pa., farm only about a mile from where former President Eisenhower lives.

With that find, police announced that 90 per cent of the treasure had been recovered. They continued to question other construction workers today in hope of finding the remaining 10 per cent.

Still at large are the bungling bandits, who had to abandon their loot-laden car only a block away from the robbery scene. It kept stalling because the driver could not cope with its old-style floor shift, police said.

The car, hijacked from a jewelry messenger service in midtown Manhattan last Friday, was found by police several hours later. But much of the loot had disappeared.

Police gave this account:

The bandit driver, dressed in a policeman's uniform, got as far as a demolition site on west 41st Street when the station wagon's motor conked out again. He asked a construction worker to help him start the car.

The worker refused, apparently relishing the sight of a "policeman" caught in such a predicament. The frustrated bandit fled.

The construction man, Philip Rossi, 31, then drove the car onto the demolition site. He discovered the jewels and gold bars, called fellow demolition men over and, as police described it, a "grab bag" game followed.

Officers said Walter Cunningham, 61, took $8,000 in jewels to his Pennsylvania vacation retreat and buried them in a lard can.

In all, the demolition men carried off at least $268,000 worth.

Monday night, a construction worker boasted in a bar about the windfall in jewels. An eavesdropper tipped police.

At about the same time, another construction worker told a private detective that he had seen one bandit unload a briefcase in a boiler at the demolition site. The detective found the jewel-laden briefcase and called police.

Officers searched the site further Tuesday and found still more jewels.

Two Injured In Road Mishaps

Lisbon Area Man Is Hospitalized

Two one-car accidents Tuesday injured motorists from the Lisbon area and from North Lima, according to Lisbon and Canfield barracks of the State Highway Patrol. Two other motorists were issued citations for traffic violations.

Paul E. Pastore, 35, of RD 3, Lisbon, received a dislocated right hip and lacerations of the nose at 7:30 p.m. when his car went off the left side of Township Rd. 896, a mile west of Route 7, and struck a tree. He was admitted to Salem City Hospital at 10 p.m. for treatment. His condition is fair to day.

Pastore was cited by the Lisbon Patrol for driving left of center.

Treated at North Lima Medical Center for possible fractured ribs and abrasions of the knee was Mrs. Roberta Martin, 28, of North Lima, who crashed into an advertising sign at 4:30 p.m.

The Canfield Patrol reported Mrs. Martin lost control of her car as she tried to pass another car south of Woodworth on Route 7. The auto went off the left side and hit the large sign.

Four other motorists involved in two traffic mishaps escaped injury yesterday afternoon, but two were cited.

James E. Powell, 19, of East Liverpool was cited by the Lisbon Patrol for failure to yield the right of way about 10 p.m. after he pulled in front of a car driven by Keith H. Dunlevy, 34, also of East Liverpool, on Route 170, about a mile north of Route 30.

The Canfield patrol cited John Howard, 37, of Alliance for the same traffic offense after his car and another driven by Jessie E. Randall, 72, of Youngstown collided at 6 p.m. at Starr's Corners on Route 224, two miles east of Canfield.

James E. Powell, 19, of East Liverpool was cited by the Lisbon Patrol for failure to yield the right of way about 10 p.m. after he pulled in front of a car driven by Keith H. Dunlevy, 34, also of East Liverpool, on Route 170, about a mile north of Route 30.

The Canfield patrol cited John Howard, 37, of Alliance for the same traffic offense after his car and another driven by Jessie E. Randall, 72, of Youngstown collided at 6 p.m. at Starr's Corners on Route 224, two miles east of Canfield.

They aren't so sure now, but they are privately voicing doubts.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The full impact of South Viet Nam's military coup on the anti-Communist war there is expected to show itself by Easter, U.S. officials said today.

Defense authorities Tuesday reported a "moderate favorable trend in the morale and determination" of South Vietnamese troops in the two weeks since the overthrow of the regime of President Ngo Dinh Diem.

But they said there is no basis for judgment yet on whether the ousting of the Diem government has altered the complexion of the war to suppress Communist guerrillas. This, they said, is something that will take time to show.

Critics had contended South Viet Nam could not defeat Communists until the Diem government was replaced by leaders more responsive to the needs of the country's 14 million people.

Diem and his brother, Ngo Diem Nhu, were ousted and killed early this month.

There have been suggestions that the United States had a hand in the overthrow, but defense officials replied with a terse, "No," when asked whether they had any advance knowledge that the coup was coming.

Double-Talk

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Now is a good time to pep up on your double-talk.

Double-talk enables you to be honest with yourself while still putting the healing salve of the spoken word on the small vanities of others.

As a guide, here are some examples:

"Darling, that new dress fits you like a glove." And believe me, the glove I had in mind is a catcher's mitt.

"What's a pretty dame like you doing in a joint like this, baby?" The older they are, the better they appreciate this line.

"George, what in heaven's name ever gave you the idea that I thought you were homey?" Ugly, yes — but homely, never.

"And now let me show you

some interesting color slides

Grace and I took of the Grand Canyon way back in 1947." If that won't bore you into going home, I don't know what will.

"After all, J.P., you're the big chief, and I know I'm just one of the Indians." And how

I'd love to sink a tomahawk into your big thick skull!

"Don't worry about it, a minute, Henry. I'm sure it won't leave a stain." (If you had to spill the gravy, you clumsy idiot, why didn't you dump it on yourself?

"Despite the stepup in the competitive situation, the management looks forward with confidence to a brighter profit prospect in 1964." Or we'll all be taking in each other's laundry for a living, boys.

How's That, Mr. Secretary?

Secretary of State Rusk made such a remarkable statement about congressional doubts on foreign aid last week it cannot go unnoticed.

Relying to a question in a press conference about moves to curtail foreign aid to Yugoslavia, Indonesia and Egypt, he said he was concerned about the legislative tendency to make foreign policy.

"It is not possible for Congress to anticipate in advance what the circumstances are going to be in any given situation," he said, "so I am concerned about the tendency to try to build into law attitudes in the use of our aid program with regard to particular countries."

IN FURTHER comments along this line, Secretary Rusk seemed to be saying it was not the duty of the legislative branch of the government to ride herd on the executive branch in the foreign aid program; that the House and Senate should give the Kennedy administration whatever it asked for and keep their collective mouths shut.

Is this really what Secretary Rusk thinks should be done in regard to a policy that has lost its popular backing and raised so many legislative doubts that no representative or senator can afford to ignore them?

If Congress cannot tell the Kennedy administration that curtailment of foreign aid in general and its cessation to certain countries are overdue, where will the administration get the word?

Certainly it is not to be assumed that only the President and his advisers are qualified to discuss foreign aid. Certainly it cannot be conceded by any American that foreign policy has been taken out of the hands of the sovereign people and made the exclusive business of a political-financial hierarchy of international bankers and their political spokesmen.

CAN THE secretary of state have forgotten that representatives in Congress speak for the people, themselves, and senators for the states and that any executive policy which cannot command their support is no policy at all — nothing but an idea without the people's backing?

It's to be hoped the next time he has a press conference his views will be clarified.

They Didn't Know

We will hazard a guess that the most talked-about story in a week was an Associated Press account of spring fashion collections, including a surmise by sports wear designers that women's swimsuits would be topless within five years.

This eye-blinking possibility grows out of a fashion trend threatening to make dresses topless too, though it's possible sports wear people may have more latitude and grit than fustest with the leastest, being sportsmen at heart.

What does everybody think of this possibility?

Points of view will vary widely depending on a variety of circumstances, one of which might be whether or not the viewer was exposed to National Geographic Magazine as an impressionable child. If so, the reaction is a shudder of apprehension.

But on the other hand, the ladies in the Geographic didn't know better in the first place and in the second didn't know the box being pointed at them was a C-A-M-E-R-A. If they'd know, they'd have put something on, wanting to look their best for posterity. Not naturally. Artificially, silly!

For Safe Hunting

Good hunters don't need to be reminded but nimrods not too experienced in the field deserve to be cautioned before the crack of guns signals the start of the upland game season Friday.

The Columbian-Mahoning County district has been free of tragic hunting accidents in recent years and all sportsmen want to keep the record clean.

Hunters can increase their margin of safety if they will be sure of their target before they shoot; wear bright colors themselves, and establish zones of fire before starting out in a group.

Each hunter must assume full responsibility for his acts while in the field.

When the Mood Rides High

When political sages wax sagacious, it must be assumed they know that they are doing.

Like theater critics, the sages are entitled to the benefit of every doubt, on the theory they may not know everything but they do know more than anyone else knows. They are professionally concerned. They have developed expertise in a chancy field.

So much for sages now waxing sagacious about the 1964 election in the United States. It must be assumed they know what they are doing when they point out the virtual impossibility of defeating an incumbent president asking for a second term under the new constitutional ceiling of two terms to a customer.

THERE HAS just been a significant by-election in the United Kingdom.

A Johnny - Come - Lately to hustle-bustle politics, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, formerly Lord Home of the British "cousinage," won a seat in the House of Commons from the constituency of Kinross, West Perthshire, which was picked for this triumph of popular confidence because a Conservative cannot lose there and the candidate had to be elected to qualify for his new position as head of

Occasionally An Idea

Lucas County sheriff's deputies are latest to go through the grim business of checking out the violent deaths of a "lover's lane" couple.

This is a lurking dread of sheriff departments in every county. Parking in lonesome places is an open invitation to potential murderers. Yet, parking in other places is "against the law."

It is a situation in which human nature comes into conflict with social restrictions. It may be argued that males and females should not be in parked cars together, but the fact is they are going to be in parked cars together as long as there are males, females, autos and places to park them.

Occasionally, someone comes up with an idea for settling this conflict between human nature and social rules.

Students of Ohio State University, formerly accustomed to keeping parked cars in isolated places along the Olentangy River, where they were potential victims of molestation, this year are permitted to keep parked car dates on campus parking lots supervised by university police.

Everybody is happy about what appears to be a common-sense concession to student behavior. University officials feel safer. Parked car daters feel safer. Parents feel safer, too, if they are the kind that acknowledges boys will be boys and girls will be girls.

As long as this is true, boys and girls are better off in a supervised parking lot than they ever were when "watching submarine races on the Olentangy." They have a name for the new kind of supervised dating, too — "touch football."

A Visitor to the Smoke-Filled Room

'Resegregation'

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Segregation by race—not by order of the law or by rule of the courts, but by reason of physical circumstances—is increasing in many American cities as Negroes fill up the public schools in those communities while whites move to the suburbs.

David Lawrence K This presents a situation which the Supreme Court of the United States in its 1954 decision deplored and called on the public to correct. The high court said:

"Does segregation of children in public schools solely on the basis of race, even though the physical facilities and other 'tangible' factors may be equal, deprive the children of the minority group of equal educational opportunities? We believe that it does."

The court went on to say that to separate children "from others of similar age and qualifications solely because of their race generates a feeling of inferiority as to their status in the community" and has a serious effect on "their educational opportunities."

An example of how "resegregation" is developing may be seen in the latest statistics from the school authorities in the nation's capital.

There are in the City of Washington 18 elementary schools with no white pupils and 67 more with 25 or less white students. Thirteen junior high schools and six senior high schools have 25 or less white students.

Five of these schools have no whites. There are, on the other hand, 13 elementary, one junior high and one senior high school which are virtually all-white.

THE ENROLLMENT in Washington public schools as a whole is 85.7 per cent Negro, as compared with 57 per cent in 1953. Here are some of the changes that have taken place in the nine years since Washington public schools were "desegregated" immediately after the Supreme Court handed down its historic decision in 1954.

Eastern High
1955 1963
510 Whites 5 Whites
688 Negroes 2,381 Negroes
McKinley High
521 Whites 15 Whites
659 Negroes 1,774 Negroes
Roosevelt High
634 Whites 19 Whites
518 Negroes 1,319 Negroes
MacFarland Jr. High
646 Whites 15 Whites
641 Negroes 1,324 Negroes
Sousa Jr. High
730 Whites 30 Whites
171 Negroes 1,047 Negroes
Davis Elementary
432 Whites 12 Whites
315 Negroes 1,492 Negroes
Keene Elementary
1,003 Whites 69 Whites
9 Negroes 803 Negroes

Certainly a large number of Negro children are not getting the classroom benefits of mingling with white children in Washington schools which were so strongly recommended by the Supreme Court in its decree against segregated schools.

Whether this population shift is the result primarily of an attempt by whites to avoid integration or whether it is due in large part to the affluence of those who move to better residential areas in the city or to the suburbs, the fact remains that the Negro students are not getting the benefits of desegregated schools which the Supreme Court has said are so essential to their educational opportunities.

IN NEW YORK CITY, in compliance with an order from the state education commissioner, a plan has been offered to allow Negroes and Puerto Ricans to attend schools outside their neighborhood districts.

The city superintendent of schools, Dr. Calvin E. Gross, says the plan is the "most comprehensive effort to achieve maximum integration" of any school system in the country, and that it represents the best possible plan "short of the compulsory interchange of Negro and white students between distant communities."

Under the proposed "free-choice transfer policy" students in schools with high Negro or Puerto Rican enrollment may transfer to any other school in the city where space is available.

In Boston, segregation of the public schools by reason of housing and employment is conceded. The school board there has been under attack by the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People but insists the segregation is coincidental and not intentional.

This, however, doesn't meet the requirements of the Supreme Court's supplementary opinion of 1955, which says that the courts may consider transportation systems, the "revision of school districts and attendance areas into compact units to achieve a system of determining admission to the public schools on a nonracial basis, and revision of local laws and regulations which may be necessary in solving the foregoing problems."

THE PRESIDENT of the United States is virtually the mayor of the City of Washington, and the Congress is, in effect, the Board of Aldermen.

Since it now is being sought to abrogate state lines by invoking the commerce clause of the Constitution to support a federal law to prohibit racial discrimination in public accommodations, it's conceivable that school districts in the all-white sections of Washington or those embracing nearby Virginia and Maryland could someday be classified by the courts as available for transfers of students away from the "segregated" schools of the District of Columbia.

Certainly a large number of Negro children are not getting the classroom benefits of mingling with white children in Washington schools which were so strongly recommended by the Supreme Court in its decree against segregated schools.

"Through the generosity of many in past years each child has been able to receive the gift he or she most desired, and it is hoped that the goal will again be made this year," Bycroft said.

Checks should be made payable to the Columbiana County Department of Welfare, 123 S. Market St., Lisbon.

Heloise

By HELOISE CRUSE

DEAR HELOISE: Anyone who has children knows that peanut butter and jelly sandwiches are in demand . . .

Shampoo is also wonderful to rub around the neckline of a dress, or the collar of a man's shirt, especially if the wearer has the type of oily skin that always leaves a discoloration.

The shampoo restores the "like-new" look and does not require the hard rubbing that causes those areas to fray and wear out too soon.

Modern shampoos are made to cut oil and greasy-type film, and seem to be extraordinarily gentle. None of my garments has retained a spot or a trace of a stain after using shampoo in this manner.

MRS. M. A. HELM.

DEAR HELOISE: To remove oily and greasy spots from my garments I use liquid shampoo. Any kind of shampoo one happens to have on hand will do, although I get better results from concentrated shampoo.

Rub the shampoo directly into the oily or greasy spots on the garment then drop the garment in your clothes hamper until laundry day. (It may be washed out immediately if so de-

Suicide Called Serious Public Health Problem

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Two million Americans—more than one in 100—already have tried to commit suicide.

Some 200,000 try each year to take their own lives and 25,000 to 35,000 or more actually succeed.

Dr. Louis I. Dublin, a famous

Leetonia Board Meets Next Week

LEETONIA — Due to the absence of a school administrator and two members, the Board of Education of the Leetonia Exempted Village School District has postponed its monthly meeting until Nov. 20. Clerk Gladys Gause reported today.

The board's regular meeting would have been held tonight, but Superintendent Victor Wood, Mr. Paul Conrad, board president, and Dr. Guy Nicolette, board member, are attending the annual convention at Columbus of the Ohio School Boards Association. They plan to return from the three-day session Thursday night. Dr. Conrad is official delegate and Dr. Nicolette, alternate.

A report of the state conclave will be presented at the Nov. 20 board meeting along with other business.

Time

Now it must figure a way to get the bill on the House floor for a vote.

Committee members have been given until next Monday to submit their written views on the bill for inclusion in a formal report. Not until the report is written and available for general use can the Judiciary Committee request a hearing before the Rules Committee.

The request for a hearing could go to the Rules Committee chairman, Howard W. Smith, D-Va., late next week.

Smith is a zealous opponent of the civil rights bill and, while he has not disclosed his course of action, colleagues say he would resort to any legitimate means to block it.

He cannot ignore indefinitely a formal request for a hearing, but he can delay the hearing and force a majority of his 15-member group to order a session over his objections. It could take a week or longer to get a committee meeting if Smith objected.

That procedure alone would delay committee consideration until after Thanksgiving.

Once a hearing is ordered, Smith charts its course. He is expected to hear every member of the House who has an interest in the bill.

Foes of the legislation seem confident that they can delay action until almost Christmas. They doubt that the House leadership would schedule a show-down vote at that late date.

"It doesn't look too good right now," a House lieutenant said privately. "We may have to put it off until next year."

Deaths Funerals

Mabelle Ballantine

Mabelle Ballantine of 710½ Columbia St., Leetonia, died this morning at Salem City Hospital. Funeral arrangements are pending at Woods Funeral Home in Leetonia.

Mrs. Herbert Zimmerman

Mrs. Sarah Mabel Zimmerman, 84, of 676 E. 3rd St. died of a heart attack at 12:30 a.m. today at 1844 N. Ellsworth Ave., where she had been residing for the past six weeks.

Born in Salem Jan. 26, 1879, the daughter of Benjamin E. and Bethsheba McCartney Todd, she was a member of Phillips Christian Church, Daughters of Union Veterans, Senior Citizens and a Gold Sheaf member of Salem Grange. Her husband, Herbert, died in 1935.

Of those who try suicide, most are under 30, and are mostly young women, Dr. Dublin said. Of those who succeed, most are well over 50, and men outnumber women 3-1.

People kill themselves to collect insurance, or because they are dying of incurable disease, but the majority are emotionally or mentally overwhelmed or upset, said Dr. Dublin, retired second vice president and statistician of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

But if people with problems can get help and sympathy, he said, "experience has shown that suicide is, to a degree at least, a preventable condition."

Dr. Dublin said coordination of the social, medical, and psychological services in many communities is needed to rescue the would-be suicide "by offering a helping hand" night or day.

had arrived in the Spanish capital by Iraqi military plane.

After a military revolt in Iraq last Feb. 8, Premier Abdel Karim Kassem was executed and a coalition of Ba'ath Socialists and supporters of President Gamal Abdel Nasser of the United Arab Republic took power.

In April, after a military revolt in Syria brought the Ba'ath to power there, Iraq, Syria and the U.A.R. agreed to merge in a new United Arab Republic. But pro-Nasser elements in Iraq lost out to the Ba'ath in a power struggle last May, and unity plans were shelved.

The Ba'athist regimes in Iraq and Syria have drawn steadily closer together ever since and have been making plans for full union of their neighboring countries without Nasser's U.A.R.

Returning GIs Choose Kisses Over Steaks

BERGSTROM AIR FORCE BASE, Tex. (AP) — Troops leading the way home on the big lift from Germany were typical soldiers—they chose a kiss from the wife or girlfriend instead of a steak.

The first C135 jet transport returning men of the 2nd Armored Division from maneuvers in Germany arrived Tuesday afternoon from near Frankfurt. It started a series of 87 flights due here about ½ hours apart until Nov. 1.

Other planes will land at Gray Air Force Base, near Killean, and Connally Air Force Base, near Waco, until 222 flights have returned the 16,000 troops flown to Europe Oct. 22-23.

Exercise Big Lift was designed to prove the United States' ability to move combat forces overseas quickly and in large numbers. A seven-day maneuver with the 3rd Armored Division ended Tuesday.

While the 73 men and officers on the first plane waited for U.S. custom agents to check baggage they took a straw vote. "Do you want to go first to the mess hall where we have some big thick steaks waiting to feed you or would you rather skip that to see your wives and families?" a welcoming officer asked.

Friends may call at the Memorial from 7 to 9 p.m. Thursday.

100 at Banquet Of Education Unit

Over 100 attended the annual fall banquet of the Columbiana County Education Association at Southern Local High School Tuesday evening.

Jerry Russell, principal of Leetonia High School and the delegate to the National Education Association's convention last summer at Detroit, spoke on "Education, the Profession You Choose."

Mrs. Marjorie Fair, first grade teacher, and Mrs. Alice Satterthwait, high school teacher, both of United, reported on the Ohio Education Association's convention.

Thomas Lee, principal of Southern Local School, welcomed the group, and James L. McBride, county superintendent, gave a few remarks.

A French horn quartet, composed of Willard Dean, Robbie Cole, John Eastham and Candy Smith, presented "French Horn Frappe." Charles Temple is the group's director.

ground, the schools were closed. The state highway patrol at Painesville said there was more than six inches on the ground there, and about eight inches was reported at Chardon.

Three inches was reported in Ashtabula.

The heavy snow in the Kirtland area clogged many secondary roads despite the night-long effort of salt-and-cinder crews. Kirtland schools were closed because of the transportation problem.

Interstate 90 was reduced from four lanes to one from Willobough east to the Ashtabula County line, the Sheriff's Office reported.

Snow fell throughout the night and resulted from the cold air sweeping across the 55-degree waters of Lake Erie and dumping the precipitation in the form of snow in the higher elevations, according to the Weather Bureau.

Police said Mrs. Lestman drove her auto from Water St. onto E. State St. into the path of Zelavy's car, causing the mishap.

give advance notification of travel beyond Washington and New York, even though there were no areas forbidden to them.

Under the new regulations they no longer have to give this prior notice.

As for the Soviet Union, the regulations only revise a 1961 list of closed areas, opening up some which were formerly closed and closing others, but keeping the total off-limits areas at approximately 26 per cent of the United States.

Petinaud, who said he understands but does not speak French, said he received $27 a day for expenses the days he actually worked as a messenger. Hays said the expenses for the eight-day stay in Paris were paid out of U.S. counterpart funds—foreign credits of the United States which must be spent overseas.

Repeated efforts of a reporter to obtain an official list of all who made the trip ran into a series of stone walls Tuesday, although it was conceded they went at taxpayers' expense in an Air Force plane.

But the group included Jean Litten and Patricia Peak, both listed as secretaries in Hays Washington office.

The single secretary who remained in Hays' office Tuesday said he had taken all details of the trip with him and she had no list available.

The State Department's Congressional Liaison Division which arranges expense money on such trips, said it traditionally leaves it up to congressmen to make such information public.

Asked if she was refusing to make the list available, the State Department spokesman, Nancy Hogan, said, "That's right."

The Defense Department which arranged the overseas transportation, likewise bucked the query back to Congress.

The House Disbursing Office requires reports of expenditures on such trips but gives the congressmen 60 days to submit them.

Veal Dish Goes Modern

By GAYNOR MADDOX

Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

This veal savory is a delicious dish that has been popular for a long time. It is almost old-fashioned. But the recipe given here is made with a canned dry onion soup mix that cuts down time and kitchen labor. In other words, the old-fashioned recipe goes modern convenience.

The second recipe for broccoli and tuna is perfect for a meatless dinner.

VEAL SAVORY

1 1/2 pounds thinly sliced veal cutlet, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 can (1 1/2 ounces) onion dry soup mix, 1/2 cup paprika, 1/4 cups water, 1/4 cup

Bordeaux or other dry red wine, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/4 cup sour cream, Cooked noodles.

Cut veal into serving-size pieces. Pound with meat hammer or edge of heavy saucer. In skillet, brown meat in butter. Add soup mix and paprika; gradually stir in water and wine. Cover; cook over low heat 15 minutes or until tender, stirring now and then.

Gradually blend 2 tablespoons water into flour; slowly stir into sauce. Cook until thickened, stirring often. Blend in sour cream. Serve over noodles. Makes 6 servings.

FRESH BROCCOLI AND*TUNA AU GRATIN

(6 servings)

1 pound fresh broccoli, 1 teaspoon salt, 6 1/2 ounce can tuna fish, 2 cups cheese sauce, 3/4 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 1/2 tablespoons butter or margarine.

Wash broccoli, cut off tough portion of stalk and place in a saucepan containing 1 inch boiling water and 1 teaspoon salt. Bring to boiling point, uncovered and boil 5 minutes. Cover and cook until tender, 5 to 10 minutes. Place half the broccoli in a 9x5x3-inch baking dish. Top in alternating layers with tuna fish and 1 cup of the cheese sauce. Cover with remaining broccoli and pour an additional 1 1/2 cups cheese sauce over all. Mix bread crumbs with melted butter or margarine and sprinkle over top. Bake in a 350° oven for 15 minutes or until crumbs are brown.

CHEESE SAUCE

Melt 1/4 cup butter or margarine in a saucepan. Blend in 1/4 cup flour. Gradually stir in 2 1/2 cups milk. Cook until medium in 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper, 1 teaspoon salt and 1/4 cup grated sharp Cheddar cheese.

PANETTONE

Some of our Italian friends urge us to tell you about their festive Panettone. It is a large round loaf of bread with sweet Muscat raisins and candied fruit dotted through it.

1 cup baking hot milk, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 2 packages of yeast, active dry or compressed, 1/4 cup warm water, 2 eggs, beaten, 1 teaspoon grated lemon peel.

4 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1/2 cup soft butter or margarine, 1 1/2 cups seeded Muscat raisins, 1-3 cup chopped candied fruit, 1-3 cup slivered almonds.

Pour milk over sugar and salt in mixing bowl; cool to lukewarm. Soften yeast in warm water in warm bowl and add to cooled liquid. Stir in beaten egg and lemon peel. Add 3 cups flour; beat until smooth.

Beat in softened butter, raisins, candied fruit and almonds.

Add remainder of flour and work with hand to distribute fruit evenly. Cover with damp cloth and let rise to double in size, about 2 hours.

Beat dough and let rise again, about 1 hour. Spoon into greased 8-cup casserole; let rise until light and full above edge of casserole.

Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees) 45 to 50 minutes. Cool on rack. Frost with powdered sugar glaze if desired.

The Doctor Says

Chemicals Foul Air We Breathe

If someone handed you an inhaler and told you it was full of poisonous chemicals I trust you would not sniff it. We are, however, all exposed to many poisons in the air. Why then are we not all sick?

Under favorable conditions air currents dilute and disperse most of the polluting substances. But the fact remains that we are simply not aware of how much quiet damage long-term exposure is doing until we develop one of the chronic respiratory diseases.

Some air pollutants are capable of causing lung cancer. It has been found that prolonged exposure to them is associated not only with a high incidence of lung cancer but also of stomach cancer.

SUCH EXPOSURE is responsible also for an increase in bronchial asthma and infections of the nose, throat and sinuses. Smog can make you cry, sneeze and cough and, in those who are already in a weakened condition or are suffering from a chronic respiratory disease, it can kill.

It can temporarily paralyze the cilia in the lungs and thus interfere with the natural cleaning of that organ. Furthermore asthma can definitely be aggravated by community-wide burning of leaves in the fall.

Studies show that persons who have been made sick by severe smog and have recovered have a much greater susceptibility to future respiratory diseases than their neighbors who are not made sick. Thus, the ill effects on one's health may persist for many years.

AS THOUGH THIS were not enough, consider the fact that the cost of air pollution in crop destruction, disease in live stock, erosion of stone and metal surfaces of buildings, increased need for laundry and dry cleaning, and damage to painted surfaces has been estimated to be $7.5 billion annually.

If steps are ever taken to control air pollution it may well be for these reasons rather than for reasons of health.

In attacking the problem each community must have exact knowledge of what pollutants are present locally and how they are causing injury.

ONE OF THE chief reasons for a lack of progress in air pollution control has been the fact that there is no simple uni-

THE BATTLE OF THE VILLA FIORITA by Rumer Godden. Two English children, agitated because their mother has gone off with a man other than their father, pursue her all the way to Italy. They fully intend to take her away from their father's rival, their child minds having simplified the problem. The book tells of all that happens after they arrive, as well as what had gone before, in the inimitable style that no author except Rumer Godden can quite capture.

THE HOUSE THAT TAI MING BUILT by Virginia Lee. The house was in the inland part of China, but the family that earned the money to build it lived in San Francisco. We have four generations of them here and find them changing from loyalty to their native land to a mixed allegiance and finally to complete loyalty to the new country, and much more besides of the tragic and the gay about the members of the family.

THE RICHEST POOR FOLKS by Leland Frederick Cooley. In California in the 20's, a ten year old boy goes to spend the summer with his Grandmas and Aunt Jo on their farm in the upper Sacramento valley. The story of that whole adventurous summer is told with just the right amount of cruelty and with a delightful cast of characters who indulge in a great deal of hilarious activity.

RUN TO EVIL by Lesley Eggen. A suspense and murder story, this is the recounting of the disappearance of Paul Brandon who was ten years old and very curious about everything going on around him. When his body is found in an excavation, murder is suspected.

DREAMS ARE FOR TOMORROW by Agnes Sanford. Martha had always wanted a child, so when Hilary appeared on the doorstep she took her in and no questions asked. Her husband Church was less than enthusiastic, but Martha ignored his complaints. It turns out that Hilary is pregnant—the local rector tries to give advice, there are many confusions and mix-ups which all add up to a nice old-fashioned story.

THE BLUE SAPPHIRE by D. E. Stevenson. With Scotland and England as the background, Miss Stevenson weaves another of her charming romances spiced with a bit of suspense, and a good deal of misunderstanding before the course of true love can run smooth.

I, KETURAH by Ruth Wolff. An orphan girl who strikes it much luckier than most, Keturah is first cared for by the Dennys. After they are dead, she gets a position as governess in a wealthy home. Of course there is much more, and all of it turns out for the best in the end.

RAND McNALLY BIBLE ATLAS by Emil G. Kraeling. With many maps and pictures and lively text incorporating late archeological discoveries, this brings alive the people of the Bible, and something of their predecessors in the same land.

GLOBAL ODYSSEY by Howard A. Johnson. The Canon Theologian of Cathedral Church of St. John the Divine, New York made a two-year journey to visit every Episcopal church in the world which could be reached. He was seeking answers to the questions of how Christianity is faring in the world, what impact is it having on Asia and Africa, and how can Christians face the other world religions like Buddhism, Hinduism, Mohammedanism?

DICTIONARY OF MODERN PRONUNCIATION by Norman Lewis. A list of 9,000 words which often are mis-pronounced, rules for pronunciation. There are no definitions.

McLaughlin Gets MVP Trophy At Beaver Local Banquet

Boosters Club Fêtes Gridders

275 Persons Hear Mount Union Coach

Senior halfback Jim McLaughlin was named the most valuable player on the 1962 Beaver Local High School football squad when approximately 275 persons attended the annual grid banquet Tuesday night at the school.

McLaughlin, one of the Beavers' tri-captains, also received the coaches' "star" award, which is given after a game-by-game "grading" of the players.

FLOYD SALTSMAN and Dick Shearer are the other tri-captains. Saltsman was named the best offensive back of the year.

Others receiving trophies were Richard Whittington, best offensive lineman; Ed Derrenberger, best defensive lineman and Roger Diddle, best defensive back.

Ken Wable, head coach at Mount Union College at Alliance, was the main speaker of the evening and outlined some of the things he and his staff look for in boys they are considering recruiting to Mount Union.

WABLE SAID THE coaches always consult the principal and the coach to see if he is a good citizen and a good student.

Wable said that when the boy is interviewed, what may be considered little things to most people are the points on which the boy is judged. He noted that a good handshake, a neat appearance and the boy's willingness to "look you in the eye," are all very important.

GEORGE DUNN, PRESIDENT of the Beaver Local Boosters Club, which sponsored the event, acted as toastmaster and introduced Ed Stevens, head mentor at Beaver Local.

Stevens then introduced his staff, Robert Fletcher, John Pape, Richard Parsons and Donald Ross who presented varsity, reserve and freshman letters.

Receiving varsity, reserve and freshman awards were:

Two year varsity: Warren Bradley, Pete Burnett, Roger Diddle, Ken Matheny, Jim McLaughlin, Dave Mullen, Floyd Saltsman, Rich Shearer, Dick Whittington.

One year varsity: Allan Copstick, Ed Derrenberger, Norman Gaydos, Bob Lerussi, Mike Lynn, Arnie McLaughlin, Dick Miller, Jim Moffett, Dale Moore, Jim Nulph, Bill Osborn, George Rizer.

Niles Closes Gap On Massillon In AP Poll

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Massillon's Tigers and Niles McKinley's Dragons are knotted in another tight scrap for Ohio's high school football championship—just as they were in 1960 and 1961.

The title, and the Rutgers Hall of Fame Trophy emblematic of the championship, goes to the winner of next week's Associated Press sports writers' poll. The final ratings will be made after the weekend games.

Massillon's nine-time state kings held a slight edge over Niles in today's next-to-last poll as 55 writers picked their Top Ten teams. But Leo Strang's powerhouse is through for the year with a 9-0 record while Tony Mason's Dragons still have Warren's Panthers to dispose of. Niles has an 8-0-1 record.

Niles, 1961 champion and 200-winner over 1962 champion Toledo Central Catholic, gained 23 poll points on Massillon this week on the 10-9-8-etc. voting basis.

Final Poll Set Next Week

The final poll was set for next week because five of the Top Ten have tilts on tap. Cincinnati's Roger Bacon will play Hughes, Cleveland St. Ignatius has a Thanksgiving date with Benedictine, Akron Garfield meets South, and Dayton Roth goes against Colonel White in games which could change the entire setup.

Only one personnel shift occurred in the Top Ten this week. Akron Hoban fell from the list and Ashland's 10-game winners moved in.

This and that: Of the 55 voters in the poll seven ignored Niles and third-place Sandusky, and eight failed to mention Massillon.

St. Ignatius' 28-14 victory over Cleveland South, before 13,106, gave it a 9-0 season, a 19-0 string, and its 10th West Senate title. While Niles hasn't lost in its last 46 games, Youngstown North hasn't won in its last 55—stretching back to 1957.

The Warren-Niles game is the first in 15 years and is expected to draw 15,000 fans as Tony Mason goes after his fourth straight unbeaten season.

Lorain Clearview, where Bowling Green University's Doyt Perry got his coaching start, took the Lakeland Conference for the second time in five years. Massillon held Canton McKinley to 26 yards on the ground in its 22-6 victory, the Bulldogs having a minus eight in the second half.

Seven of Mount Vernon's unbeaten—untied Yellow Jackets were named to the Central Buckeye League's all-star team. Head Coach Bill Frazier, assisted by his brother, Tom, led 40-18.

Circleville quarterback Tom Tootle tossed two touchdown passes, ran for another and booted five extra points against Franklin Heights. The Roundtown boys wound up with a 9-1 mark.

Hickman Scores 40 Points Xenia's 205-pound fullback, John Beals, scored 20 points to down Plaia 28-6. North Canton's Keith Hickman, also a fullback, went for 40 points in the 66-6 rout of Jackson (Stark County).

Celina Stadium seats 3,500, but some 6,000 were on hand—in trees, atop autos, etc. — as Lima Shawnee made it 10-0 and 19 straight with a 28-6 triumph over the hosts for the Western Buckeye League crown. Spencerville had its first perfect season, 10-0, by whipping Lafayette 40-18.

Texas, Navy, OSU Are Grid Favorites This Week

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Somebody last weekend didn't appreciate the 28-14 defeat of Texas Christian by Louisiana State and so Coach Abe Martin was hung in effigy.

This is a reminder that if you don't like these selections, your effigy for hanging must be a minimum of 6-feet-7.

Last week there were 11 reasons for hanging but there also were 46 correct guesses for a 80 average. That lifted the season's total to 313 right, 108 wrong and an average of .755.

This week's picks:

Texas over Texas Christian: Coach Martin's necktie party might inspire the Frogs to repeat their upset of several years ago but Texas always seems to come up with the required points at the right time, and so the Longhorns will stay at the top of the heap.

Navy over Duke: Roger Staubach will get more help from his Middie teammates than Jay Wilkinson will get from the other Dukes.

Mississippi over Tennessee: Nothing has stopped the Mississippi Rebels since that opening shocker with Memphis State.

Michigan State over Notre Dame: Sherm Lewis is tiny but he also is very, very good.

Oklahoma over Missouri: The Missourians are handicapped by the lack of a consistent offense.

Pittsburgh over Army: The Pitt slogan is "Dial M for Murder." It refers to the Panthers' own version of the M&M—Paul much for the Oklahoma Cowboys.

Alabama over Georgia Tech: The Crimson Tide has had two weeks to get ready for the duel with Billy Lodridge and his playmates. All the Alabama wounded have had time to heal.

Illinois over Wisconsin: The Badgers have two quarterbacks, Hal Brandt and Dave Fronk, but no heavy siege gun as the Ilini's Jim Ferguson. Illinois needs this one to stay in the Big Ten title race.

Auburn over Georgia: Jimmy Sidle, the Auburn speedster, was deposed last week as the country's leading rusher. Here's his chance to climb to the top again.

Nebraska over Oklahoma State: Denis Claridge is too

Washington over UCLA: The Huskies' Bill Douglas is an A student — Both on and off the football field.

Others Xavier (Ohio) over Detroit, Kansas over Colorado, Miami (Ohio) over Dayton, Iowa State over Kansas State, Michigan over Iowa, Ohio University over Bowling Green, Purdue over Minnesota, Southern Illinois over Toledo, Tulsa over Houston, Western Michigan over Louisville, Wichita over Cincinnati.

Estes Refuses to Talk About Deals

WASHINGTON AP — Senate investigators are reportedly drafting a report on the Billie Sol Estes case which features stinging criticism of get-rich-quick schemes engineered by the Texas promoter.

Estes, who built a fortune on the proceeds of farm aid contracts with the Agriculture Department, refused to answer questions about the deals when he went before the Senate Investigations subcommittee Tuesday as its last scheduled witness.

The subcommittee announced its next act in the long probe will be to seek agreement among its members on a report of findings. Well-placed sources predicted a split verdict, with the majority sharply critical but stopping short of any finding that political influence was involved.

33 Attend Grange Officers Conference

Thirty-three attended the bi-monthly officers conference of county granges Tuesday evening at the Elkrum Grange hall near Elkrum.

Ten of the 22 granges were represented, with Elkrum Grange opening and closing the conference.

The group divided into conference groups with Lowell Smith of Greeley Grange leading the masters group; Mrs. Paul Oyer of Bayard, lecturers; Mrs. Henry Klitz of Unity, secretaries; and Henry Klitz, Unity, legislative agents.

Two upcoming meetings were announced, the Pomona Grange meeting Saturday at 8:30 p.m. at Greeley Grange Hall at Chambersburg and the county youth grange meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Midway Grange hall, between Lisbon and Columbiana.

State awards to county granges were distributed. Delegates to the state grange convention were designated to make their report to the different county granges.

Charles L. Morlan is deputy master and Mrs. Charles Morlan is juvenile deputy of the county granges.

The host grange served lunch.

I want to congratulate Mr. Snow on his victory in the election for mayor of Washingtonville. If he puts some mercy in their justice over there like all good courts have he will have my support and that of many people from a wide area. If he continues to permit things to go on as the past several mayors have done, he is in for a very unpleasant two years. I am afraid.

Mr. Snow is a very nice man, lets all start off by sincerely wishing him a most successful term in office.

I hope that town can enjoy the close cooperation of all the people like it used to in years gone by. I used to really enjoy the many hours I spent over there.
